

EBI Training Tracks

Management of Information Centers Program

Description

This program discusses the organization and operation of computer centers from theoretical and practical views. The major issues include as the economic theory of information, the purchase of hardware and software, the development, of information systems, the evaluation of a computer center.

Duration: 15 Days

Prerequisites:

Participants should have a fundamental knowledge of computers, business operations, and the Internet

Who Would Benefit:

This course is designed to meet the needs of executives, business analysts and senior IT developers working in/building Information Centers

Courses Included:

- Management of Information Systems
- Management of Information Centers
- Organizational Behavior